Pooja	Good afternoon everybody!
	We welcome you all to the 4 th annual function of ATFS. Myself Pooja Shah and Devanshi Parekh are going to be your hosts for this evening. Please be seated and get ready for a fun filled evening of gratitude and thankfulness.
Pooja	We all know that ATFS i.e. Aadhaarshila the foundation stone is designed in a manner to encourage children to spend their after school hours in a productive and academic way. May it be through the on site help Monday to Friday or through accelerated learning on Saturdays or even through the Take out materials. That is of course our perspective. What you all ATFS families feel or what all the children feel may or may not be different.
Devanshi	One of the agenda for today's Annual function is Public Speaking. Our students will come up on stage and share their experiences at ATFS and tell us what "ATFS means to them"
Devanshi	To start that, I would like to call upon stage Ansh Jetly , the founder student and son of our director Gauri Chandna.
